

VICTORIAN WALK

(Every day except Sunday at 1530 Hrs)

Our “Victorian Walk in HAZRATGUNGE (Hazratganj)” offers a fascinating glimpse into the rich history, legacy, and vibrant marketplace of this iconic Lucknow district. This tour is designed to showcase how Hazratganj has evolved over time to cater to the discerning tastes of Lucknow’s residents.

During this experience, you’ll not only walk through the historical streets but also enjoy a relaxing seated session at an Anglicized local bakery or savor freshly brewed tea with traditional accompaniments at a charming tea shop. This tour allows you to discover and rediscover the Hazratganj of the past and compare it with the transformed “Ganj” of today. You will gain insights into the significant history of Hazratganj, from the era of the 1857 mutiny through the Second World War (1939–45) and up to India’s independence in 1947. Furthermore, you’ll understand why Hazratganj continues to hold a vital place in the lives of the people of Lucknow and why it remains a source of pride for them.

This walking tour also presents the opportunity to explore the attractive showrooms and emporia, enticing you with their vibrant displays and styles. Throughout the tour, an expert walk leader will guide you, providing ample time for you to observe and immerse yourself in the surroundings. The insightful commentary is often delivered through an audio guide system, ensuring you can easily hear the walk leader even if you are not directly alongside them.
